Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange (CBYX)

"I learned vital skills, such as navigating other languages and cultures...and maturing into a self-confident leader, that positions me to shape the future of America."

— CBYX Scholarship Recipient 2018–2019

As a CBYX participant, your exchange will include:

- Placement with a carefully selected German host family
- Admission to a German high school
- Pre-departure training in the United States and orientation programs in Germany
- Language lessons upon arrival in Germany
- A modest monthly stipend
- Cultural excursions to the German Bundestag and select German cities
- Interactions with U.S. and German government officials

CBYX is a merit-based scholarship for motivated high school students who want to experience German culture, share American culture, and learn a language through a full immersion experience.
